

Comments received via <http://www.seattle.gov/municipaljail/questions.htm>
for June 10, 2009

Name: Heidi Coffman

City: Shoreline

I highly contest the Shoreline site due to its proximity to the residential area. Several children and schools are located nearby. Furthermore, the traffic congestion that would result is not feasible with the current roads. There must be alternate locations that are more suitable than this one, with a light industrial proximity rather than the residential neighborhood that was suggested in Shoreline